JOHN BARTKY

DEDICATION

• Mr. Bartky, with his genial smile and warm personality, has done much to maintain a spirit of harmony throughout the school. His understanding of the viewpoint of the young people of today is deeply appreciated by the students of Calumet. His efficient leadership makes him one of Chicago's outstanding principals. To him we dedicate this annual.

THEME

In our effort to make this year book a real living memory, the staff has attempted to give you an interpretation of this colorful year, 1936. As a reminder of the happy days here, we have used the artist's conception of the student's life. A theme of real campus life has been our objective. We hope we have pleased you.

The year 1935-1936 has seen an unusual number of changes, due to promotions and transfers, in the personnel of the faculty.

Mr. Robert Jeffrey, who was principal during 1934-1935, became principal of the Foreman High School. When Mr. Jeffrey retired in April, the faculty of Calumet joined with the faculty of Foreman and other schools in which Mr. Jeffrey had served, to honor him at a dinner held at the Lake Shore Athletic Club.

Mr. Jeffrey has been succeeded at Calumet by Mr. John A. Bartky, who had previously taught at Harrison High, and had served for a number of years as principal of the Rogers, Pasteur, Barton, and Hubbard grammar schools. Mr. Bartky is a graduate of the University of Chicago, and is now studying for his doctorate at Northwestern University.

Mr. Bartky has enthusiastically promoted student activities at Calumet and has endeared himself to the student body. After a year at Calumet he says, "I found Calumet a going concern, and it has been fun to keep it going."

ALICE McKINLEY

ROSANNA KIERSTED

Two teachers who had given many years of service to Calumet retired within the last year. At the close of school last June, Miss Rosanna Kiersted, who had taught art for more than twenty-five years at Calumet, announced that she was leaving. Miss Kiersted has always been so retiring and gentle a person that few knew that she was well known in artistic circles in Chicago, especially for her water-color work. The beauty which she has absorbed from her surroundings all her life seems to have become part of her and to radiate from her upon everyone about her.

In the retirement of Miss Alice McKinley, after forty-three years of service at Calumet, the school has lost an inestimably valuable friend, teacher, and counsellor. The student press and daily papers carried glowing tributes to her in their columns. She and Miss Kiersted were the honored guests at a faculty dinner. Another dinner was given for Miss McKinley by the Calumet alumni, and a tea by the P. T. A.

Miss Sigrid Johnson, of the commercial department, has become a member of the faculty of the Woodrow Wilson Junior College. Mr. Glenn C. Worst has been appointed head of a branch of Harrison High School. Both are missed at Calumet.

BACK ROW: Mr. Deegan, Mr. Worst, Mr. Bechtolt, Mr. La Pointe, Mr. Ault, Mr. Booth. FRONT ROW: Mrs. Francis, Miss Austin, Miss Kelly, Miss Green, Mrs. Law, Miss O'Donohue.

Mrs. Bailey, Miss Ashland, and Miss Flood (now Mrs. Snyder) have been on sabbatical leave the entire year. Mrs. Bailey has been studying at the University of Arizona, Miss Ashland has been taking a marvelous trip around the world, and Mrs. Snyder is studying at Lawrence College. Miss Tobin returned in the fall after a summer and one semester spent in travel. Miss Pearson returned in February from a Mediterranean cruise. Miss Parmelee spent the second semester in Arizona. Mrs. Donovan took leave during the second semester in order to study and to write a book.

We were glad to welcome back to Calumet Mrs. Margaret Jackman Spencer, of the Spanish department.

Mr. Earl Dougherty, formerly dean of boys and later senior counsellor, returned to Calumet in February after a year's leave of absence spent in study and travel. Shortly after his return he was appointed principal of the Hendricks and Hartigan schools. His work as counsellor was taken over by Miss Claire O'Reilly.

At the same time Mrs. Bernice Greger, sophomore counsellor and instructor in mathematics, was appointed principal of the Cooper and Whittier schools. Mr. Bartky is an alumnus of the Cooper school. Mrs. Greger's work as counsellor was assumed by Miss Mary Leist.

BACK ROW: Mrs. Stryker, Mr. Schuessler, Mrs. Rowden, Mr. Sullivan, Mr. Kinnick, Miss Gorman, Mr. Marshall, Miss Beach. FRONT ROW: Mrs. Davies, Miss Catherine Mulcahy, Miss Powers, Mrs. Patterson, Mr. Whitman, Miss Mealiff, Miss Phillips, Miss Loretta Mulcahy, Miss Gallagher.

● 2A AND 2B SESSION TEACHERS

Teachers who joined the faculty this year are Mr. Marshall, Mr. Schuessler, Mr. Herdeg, and Mr. Alexander. Mr. Alexander took the place of Mr. Teuscher, who went to a north side school.

During Christmas vacation Miss Frances Whelan became Mrs. Law. This completes the tale of new names to be learned for the year.

Under the direction of Miss Katherine Coyle, the Westcott branch has increased in enrollment until it has six hundred eighty pupils and a faculty of nineteen teachers. All of the first and second year high school subjects are taught.

Miss Callis, Miss Todd, Miss Sattler, and Mr. Gronert teach the languages. The mathematics classes are taught by Miss Mills and Mr. McCracken. Mr. Merwick and Mr. Dunford have the shop work, and Mrs. Barlow has the food and clothing classes. Mrs. Reilly has charge of the art; Miss Swing, the music; and Mr. Busch, the boys' gymnasium classes. The girls' gymnasium classes are taught by Miss O'Leary, who comes from the main building for two days each week. Mr. Thatcher and Captain Morris also come from the main building to teach orchestra and band.

swimming teams for two years, and George Postlethwaite, swimming champion.

The inter-room basketball championship was won by a 4B session room, 314A.

The 4B class also has its share of girl athletes. Alice Giermann and Elsie Johnson excel in tennis. Evelyn Krastin, Marion Rex, and Jeraldine Carlson are Senior Red Cross Life Savers.

Raymond Malmquist and Orval Larson, cheerleaders, are members of the 4B class.

Outstanding personages who will no doubt

Joseph Partlow, who is fast following in the footsteps of his brother George, a former class prexy; Thomas Cafcas, likeable business manager of the Temulac; Dorothy Doyle, G. A. A. secretary and Crier reporter; and Vincent Burke, Crier sports editor and manager of the baseball and basketball teams, are others who have gained fame.

Another notable is Beryl Jacobsen, one of the assistant editors of the Temulac. Crier reporters in the 3A division are Grace Bug-ner, Mary Jane Moyer, Alois Claxton, Elsie Schaak, Jacqueline Nicholson, George Triezenberg, William Kleinpaste, and Dick Grabfelder.

Well represented in athletic circles, the 3A's boast of Carl Fried, all-section captain of the junior basketballers, and Walter Peterson, captain of the tennis team.

Grant Rau does his cavorting on the gridiron, while Rudolph Jedelsky displays his wares for the baseball nine. Gus Kopan and Seymour Tarson are prominent wrestlers.

Twelve members of the 3A class have received "S" in more than half of their majors for their first five semesters, and have an average of 90 or more. They are: Ralph Stitt, Helen Harper, Marjorie Ormord, Diana Smead, Mary Moyer, Josephine Bukovsky, Joseph Partlow, Evelyn Cook, Margaret Eckwald, Vincent Burke, Ray Lane, Doris Roessler, and Robert Wilson.

The 3B students are an exceptional group, outstanding in scholarship, athletics, and citizenship. It is recognized by the teachers as well as the student body to be a first-rate class.

Twenty-six members of the class are in either the Gold Pin or the Silver Pin Honor Society. Room 216A, especially, includes many fine students in its membership, among them Elaine Roy, who leads the 3B class in scholarship, and Violet Danielson, who ranks second in the class, Virginia Fahey, of 313A, ranks third. Two students tie for fourth place, Ingrid Carlson and Beth Dring. Then comes Dorothy Palm, then Shirley Sawallisch, and then Helen Giacomelli.

Among the prominent athletes in the class are Robert Williams, football player; Ray Lynch, swimmer; and Milton Goldberg, basketball player.

Aurel Spuehler is leading the 2A class in scholarship, for so far all her final grades have been S. Next comes Andrew Stehney, with ten final grades of S and two of E. Five students tie for third place: Annette Aver, Dorothy Conboy, Harriet Marcus, Florence Moss, and Mildred Quantick. Then come Martha Cluever and Esther Olsin.

Among the 2B rooms Room 334B and 105B lead the class in the number of students with very high scholastic standing. Mabel Canham of 334B seems to be leading the class. Then come three students from 105B, Julia Sharp, Elsie Blakeway, and Helen Yankus. Next in rank come Doris McIlroy and Patricia Lamb, of 334B.

Other 2B students whose grades are mostly S's are Marjorie Olson, Adele Pleasance, Marvin Tornga, Lillian Bernbach, Robert Kalter, Rose Thiele, and Michael Harjung.

The honor of being the only 1A session that has 100% A. C. C. L. and G. A. A. membership goes to 232B.

Loraine Larson, a freshman, is the president of the "B" session A. C. C. L. delegates.

Among the athletes are Ray Hackel, who is on both the junior wrestling team and the freshman football team; Jack McCarthy, high-point man in inter-room basketball; Joe Marshall, a member of the junior swimming team; and George Reuter, interclass wrestler.

Michael Ruliffe had several poems published in the Crier, and Betty Jane Bridges, a 1B student, a short story.

Westcott Branch, which now has nearly seven hundred students enrolled, is just completing its third year. The first and second year subjects in all high school courses are offered at the branch, which serves the district from Halsted Street to St. Lawrence Avenue. After the pupils have completed two years of high school work, they are sent to the main building. This semester about a hundred fifty will go to Calumet. There are now more than three hundred students at the main building who began their high school days at the branch.

Westcott has many organizations and activities. The G. A. A. and B. A. A. for athletics, the A. C. C. L., the Girls Glee Club, the band, the orchestra, and an R. O. T. C. unit. In addition to these organizations, there are groups of pupils who give their time to various forms of school service. There are a number of girls who do clerical work in the office and help Miss Coyle in many ways.

Another Westcott school service is given by the pupils who are hall and locker guards. It is their duty to keep the halls quiet, to give information to visitors, and to keep strangers from the building. This group is under the direction of Dan Young and is sponsored by Mr. Johnson.

There are several girls who assist in the school library, and their help is very necessary, for about three thousand books are circulated each semester. The girls check the return of books, replace them on the shelves, and help with the records.

Other students who perform school service are the various room representatives who attend meetings of the different organizations and take charge of money that is collected. The Temulac representatives have had the responsibility of selling the Calumet year book, which is of particular interest to branch students, for through it they learn about the activities and clubs at the main building.

ORGANIZATIONS

THE ALL CALUMET CIVIC LEAGUE

The picture below, taken at an A. C. C. L. social during the fall semester, shows one phase of social life at Calumet. The promotion of social activities is one of the chief objectives of the A. C. C. L.

AN A. C. C. L. SOCIAL

The A. C. C. L. set a new membership record the fall semester, with a total of 2,186 members at the end of the drive. Rosemary Lambright, alone, sold over 200 booklets, with the greatest booklet ever offered to back her up in her sales. "The Plantation Melody Singers", a movie, "Great Expectations", and Winston O'Keefe, the singing cow-boy, made up the assembly program, with eight socials and a discount to the annual play added to the inducements to membership. The spring semester program, with Carveth Wells, world famous explorer, writer, and radio personality; Laurant, the magician; Jack Ramon, revealing the oddities of nature, a discount on operetta tickets and the Temulac, and eight socials, convinced 2,072 students that A. C. C. L. membership was a real bargain and a worth-while investment.

The officers who served so capably for the year were: Jack Cornelius, president; Amy Brownley, vice-president; and Ronald Lane, secretary-treasurer. The A. C. C. L. delegates, who handled the sale of football tickets, of Temulac subscriptions, and of the operetta and the band show, formed one branch of the student government system, which was set up by Egbert Hunter, assistant principal; the other division, the Senate, was composed of presidents of the leading school clubs.

The highlight of the socials was the "Christmas Social", which delegates from twenty-five different high schools attended. The average attendance at the socials was approximately three hundred, with Bob Keith's orchestra supplying the music. A series of "Bank Socials" proved very successful. Coupons were run in the Crier, clipped out by A. C. C. L. members, and deposited in a box upon entrance.

The annual Clean-up campaign was sponsored by the A. C. C. L. as usual. Jack Cornelius was appointed student chairman and Mr. A. J. Paulson served again as faculty adviser. The committees, set up in October, started work in earnest as soon as the appointments were made. Jack Cornelius was elected president of the Chicago Clean-up Campaign League by delegates from thirty-seven high schools. Miss La Vada Zutter's art class worked on the report book, while Terence Donohue, Carl Larsen, and Jack Cornelius handled the publicity in the school as well as in the daily papers. Having won first prize in the Clean-up movement last year, this committee was determined that this record should be maintained.

The Clean-up committee did not wait until Clean-up week to do its work, but started at once on various activities related to Clean-up work. First it carried on a campaign for a safer and saner Hallowe'en. Then it took an active part in the safety campaign. In the city-wide contest for safety posters, William Yahnker won second place, thus bringing a plaque to Calumet.

The Fire Prevention campaign was the next undertaking carried on by the Clean-up Committee. An essay contest on fire prevention was held, and six prizes were awarded. The art department worked out non-flammable Christmas tree decorations which it submitted to the fire prevention committee of the Association of Commerce. Forty Calumet students attended the opening of the Fire Prevention Exhibit at Mandel's, where ten Calumet posters were on exhibit, four of which received honorable mention.

All the prominent community clubs cooperated with the committee in its Clean-up activities. The annual Clean-up Luncheon was the next important event. For this affair the art department furnished the invitations, favors, and place cards. The committee sent invitations to one hundred civic leaders in Chicago, eighty of whom accepted.

"A" ● SESSION A. C. C. L. DELEGATES

A radio broadcast on Clean-up was given February 29 over station WJJD, with songs, a dance, and a Clean-up skit composing the program.

The grammar schools in the Calumet district worked with Calumet throughout the Clean-up campaign.

Letters were sent to civic leaders for words of encouragement, and ninety-six percent of them responded with most gratifying messages. Many of these letters were printed in the issue of the Crier reserved for Clean-up.

Co-operating with the Auburn Park Chamber of Commerce, the Clean-up Committee had a huge Community Dinner. Six hundred sixteen people, mostly business men and their friends, gathered in the school cafeteria for this gala affair.

The grammar school art advisers held a meeting to make plans for the Clean-up report books. An essay and poster contest on Clean-up was held by the grammar schools, each of which picked its own winner, who was given a gold pin in recognition of his work.

In the essay contest held at Calumet, Winnifred Donahue, a senior, won for the second time. Her essay was printed in the Clean-up issue of the Crier.

The big Clean-up parade was held on April 21. There were more than six hundred in the line of march. The units were made up of grammar school groups, representatives from leading school clubs in Calumet, and the R. O. T. C. The Clean-up assembly was held the following Friday, with E. T. Wilkes as the main speaker.

During spring vacation a group of students worked with Miss Zutter to complete the Clean-up report-book, which summarizes in a highly attractive way all the work of the Clean-up commitee.

The A. C. C. L. at Westcott sponsored roller skating parties, movies, amateur talent shows and dances. These entertainments have given the pupils an opportunity to get better acquainted and to make new friends.

The A. C. C. L. sponsored a Rose Day in order to make some money to help pay for a movie machine, which the school needed for the science and commercial geography classes. All the pupils in the school have enjoyed the picture shows for which the A. C. C. L. rented the films.

March 30 to April 3 was set aside as "School Citizenship Week." An educational campaign was conducted by means of bulletins, posters, and slogans. The English classes were encouraged to write essays and verses. These were judged by A. C. C. L. committees, and honors were awarded to the winners.

The A. C. C. L. also organized the school for "Clean-up Week," a week during which the school pupils helped in cleaning yards, houses, and schools. A. C. C. L. committees judged the posters, essays, and verses. This semester the A. C. C. L. had 331 members, nearly half of the pupils in the school.

The officers of the A. C. C. L. were the following: Lois Harder, president; Peter Arvan, vice-president; and Violet Schmitt, secretary-treasurer.

Much of the work of the organization has been accomplished by the various committees. The chairmen of the committees were as follows: Arthur Altree, entertainment committee; Marie Whiteford, refreshment and decoration committee; Viola Norstrom, ways and means committee; Russell Stitt, publicity committee; George Bugelas, ticket committee.

A. C. C. L. representatives were chosen from each session room. These representatives collected the membership money and also attended all the A. C. C. L. meetings, which were conducted by Mr. Busch, the faculty adviser. At these meetings all business of the organization was discussed and the campaigns and social activities proposed.

Calumet High School offers its students incentives for excelling in scholarship. Chief among these are the four honor societies: the National Honor Society, the Gold Pin Honor Society, the Silver Pin Honor Society, and the Bronze Pin Honor Society. Although the National Honor Society is open only to members of the 4A class, the other three societies are open to any student who has successfully maintained an average of 90 for the required number of semesters. The pins offered members by the societies are a great encouragement to students and it is considered a great privilege to own any one of these emblems.

To be chosen a member of the National Honor Society is considered the greatest honor that can be paid a Calumet student. The object of this organization to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulate a desire to render service, promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in pupils. The members of this society are elected by a council consisting of the principal and a group of teachers. Candidates eligible to election must be in the upper third of their class. No more than 15% of the class can be chosen for membership, which is based on scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Any member of the faculty may promise to the council the names of pupils eligible for membership in the organization. There are branches of the National Honor Society in all parts of the United States, as is implied by the name. In every chapter the same emblem is used. This is a gold key which is awarded to each member.

To be eligible to the Gold Pin Honor Society students must maintain an average of 90 for at least six consecutive semesters, with no more than one G in any semester, and with no failures in minors. Silver pins are awarded are awarded gold pins.

FRONT ROW: Michalski, Milius, Schilf, O'Donnell, Spuehler, Feil, Isler, Shreve, Lidgard, Gnirk, Person, Millard, Kauffmann, Cluever, Howell.

The Silver Pin Honor Society is open to all students who have had an average of 90 for at least four consecutive semesters, with no more than one G in any semester, and with no failures in minors. Silver pins are awarded to members of this society.

The Bronze Pin Honor Society was formed to encourage lower classmen. It awards a bronze pin and membership in the society to all students who have maintained an average of 90 throughout three semesters, with no more than one G in any semester, and with no failures in minors.

Four members of the Silver Pin Honor Society are not included in the picture. They are: Leana Fitzpatrick, Helen Giacomelli, Warren Lonngren, and Helmer Rue.

There are also three members of the Bronze Pin Honor Society who are not in the picture. They are: Bette Cullenbine, Helen Rice, and Marieta Odell.

The Honor Society at Westcott is made up of the 2A students who have been on the honor roll for three consecutive semesters. To be on the honor roll the students must have an E average in the major subjects. In addition most of these students have also earned honor points through various forms of service performed for the school. Some have worked on the Crier staff and some have helped in the office. Others have been hall guards or officers in the various organizations. Several of the girls have been library assistants.

An honor point system was drawn up by Miss Kathryn Coyle, principal, C. E. Johnson, Richard Busch, Miss Martha Swing, and Miss Helena Callis. This system gives the branch students an equal chance with those at the main building in gaining points for admission to the National Honor Society.

It is the fond dream of every 4A girl to be able to wear the familiar blue skirt and blue Senior Girls Council triangle on a white sweater. To be one of the fifty girls selected is an honor worthy of recognition.

The ideal Council member can adapt herself to any situation. Many members help with office work or take charge of classes when the teachers are unexpectedly called away. Others take visitors on tours through the school and give them information. The Council members also serve at various affairs held in the school. In the fall the girls served at the Safety dinner of the Calumet P. T. A. The spring semester group served luncheon to a Civic Community group of seventy-five, and served dinner on March 25 to six hundred participants in an Auburn Park Chamber of Commerce gathering, at which all fifty Council girls and twenty-five additional senior girls served.

Each semester's Council gives a dance in order to provide the funds necessary for teas for the mothers of the seniors. The annual Fall Frolic on the first of November at the Shoreland Hotel was given by the Senior Girls Council of the fall semester. Loraine Levy took charge of this event, assisted by an excellent committee, composed of Lorraine Nelson, Charlotte Rexstrew, Francine Stevenson, Irene Kellman, Doris Webber, Jayne Quantick, Marjorie Hoshell, Sadie Thompson, and Eileen Wardrope.

FALL COUNCIL

The spring group held their sprightly "Green Hop" on March 20 at the Crystal Ballroom of the Shoreland, to the lively music of Corry Lynn and his orchestra. This affair was planned under the able direction of Virginia Metz, Green Hop chairman, assisted by Madonna Manning, Eileen Kenny, Helen Kuehne, Jean McKnight, Marian Brett, Catherine Apato and Marian Moran. A large number of Cal alumni were present and also many of the faculty. Indeed, a record crowd turned out. The Council really owed its success to the splendid cooperation given it by the large school organizations, the art departments, under Miss Dorothy Gordon and Miss La Vada Zutter, and the capable R. O. T. C. cadets.

whole Council has been proud of the results. This group arranged their teas somewhat differently from the fall group. Under the able direction of Virginia Gaudette, the first tea was given for the mothers of the Council members and the class officers. The other teas, each having one fourth of the mothers of the graduating seniors, were also lovely affairs. The second, third, fourth and fifth teas were managed by Winnifred Donahue, Dorothy Brown, Louise Woods and Lois Camit respectively.

Miss Alice McKinley, who retired last semester, had been the sponsor of the Council for so many years that the fall Council felt the need of asking her guidance in planning their Fall Frolic. As Miss McKinley was not

THE FALL FROLIC

From the proceeds of the Fall Frolic the girls gave four teas for the Senior mothers and faculty. Every mother of a 4A student was invited to one of them. These informal social events provided an opportunity for the mothers to become acquainted with one another and for all the girls and their mothers to meet the faculty on a sociable and friendly basis. The four fall teas were handled by Phyllis Marsh. Helping her were Betty Ashton, Doris Rodstrom, and Florence Carlson.

The spring semester Council, with the profits from their Green Hop, were able to give five teas. Shirley Yunker, as head of these teas, was so capable a manager that the able to assist after the dance, Miss Susan Gorman then became sponsor and guided the girls through all the bewilderment and puzzles of giving the Senior teas. Under the leadership of this gracious adviser, the spring Council has been able to put over successfully everything it has attempted.

Mary Louise Westfall was elected by her Council members to serve as their president. The other officers were Vivian Trowbridge, vice-president; Elizabeth Steinmetz, secretary; and Joyce Finnegan, treasurer.

The June Council elected as its officers the following: Betty Smith, president; Marjorie Lee Cook, vice-president; Kathleen O'Connor, treasurer; and Pearl Fischer, secretary.

In September, 1935, the Quill and Scroll at Northwestern University, Evanston, awarded the Crier an International Honor rating. In March, 1936, it received a blue ribbon from the Columbia University in New York. In May, 1936, it obtained the All-American rating from the National Scholastic Press association at the University of Minnesota.

During the fall semester, the staff was headed by William Yahnker, publisher, and Vivian Williams, managing editor. Jack Cornelius was city editor, while Carl Larsen was director of outside publicity. Page editors were Virginia Thomason, Joseph Galeher, Harold Goodman, and Terence Donohue. Virginia Metz and Doris Kokesch were advertising managers, under Miss Vesta Reaver, and Kenneth Kreitzer headed circulation under Glenn C. Worst.

In the spring, Joseph Galeher became publisher; Harold Goodman, managing editor; Terence Donohue, director of outside publicity; Virginia Thomason, city editor; Jack Cornelius and Bob Cruise, activities editors. The page editors were Margaret Wahlen, Alice Gierman, Elsie Johnson, and Vincent Burke. The advertising and circulation managers remained the same.

Convention trips were made by staff members. Carl Larsen and Jack Cornelius attended the Illinois State Press convention at the University of Illinois late in November. Thirteen delegates went to the National Scholastic Press Association in Milwaukee. Terence Donohue was sent to the Columbia Press association in New York. Nine members of the staff went to the Medill Press conference at Northwestern University.

The Crier suffered a great loss when Glenn C. Worst, circulation adviser, was transferred to Jungman branch, where he now acts as head teacher. However, Mr. Worst was replaced by Leo Herdeg, who has effectively taken up where Mr. Worst left off.

Just as the Temulac is going to press, the Greater Scholastic Press Guild announces that two Crier staff members won an honorable mention in the spring contests—Harold Goodman, managing editor, won in the extemporaneous current events test and Sheila Ethel Forbes, special editorial page writer, in the submitted feature contest.

Russell Stitt was rechosen managing editor of the Crier at Westcott by Helena Callis, faculty adviser; Mary Garner and Beatrice Ording covered A. C. C. L. activities, while Harriet Swanson and Miriam Westberg reported the Girls' Glee Club events. Viola Norstrom and Charlotte Davies covered the G. A. A. and Bob Milnes the B. A. A. Other reporters were June Huyck, Dorothy Fischer, Sam Stallard, Hale Tongren, Florence Kales, and Howard Staff. Joan Doig assembled the personals.

Dan Young was circulation manager, and Estelle Pine, faculty adviser for circulation.

At the end of the first semester, a party for the staff and delegates was held in the gym. The picture on the opposite page was taken on this occasion. Marion Kortbek was chairman of the entertainment committee and Charlotte Davies of the refreshment committee. The annual Crier picnic was held in June.

While the socialites of Calumet swayed to dance music in the gym, while the tennis courts were so alluring, while the sultry weather of spring was so appealing to both young and old, day after day, if you wandered past the Temulac office, you would have seen Marvin Brooks, editor in chief, pondering over a mass of ads, cuts, and illegible papers; Pearl Fischer, seemingly drowned in rubber cement, re-adjusting pictures with a critical eye; Beryl Jacobsen playing the part of "a friend in need is a friend indeed"; Tom Cafcas adding first up and then down, then down and then up, with Bob Holloway and Earl Swillum acting as a check and balance committee, trying to balance the accounts of the day;. Rosemary Lambright playing the role of literary editor, with her colleagues, Virginia Gaudette and Dorothy Brown, slaving over dozens of club write-ups which lay about on the typewriter, the table, the cabinet, and probably under the above-mentioned articles as well; Lorraine Quist attempting to type amid the general commotion; Miss Berleman, in the middle of it all. All this would have greeted your quizzical glances, as you marvelled at the feat of actually getting an annual from what seemed such a jumbled mass of material.

While this was taking place at Calumet, Louise Woods was frantically and frequently journeying from Calumet to Westcott and back again, taking care of the Temulac business at the branch, in addition to working on various phases of the book in the main building.

The art staff, whose picture you see below, deserves great credit for the important part which they played in making this annual an attractive book.

The staff of '36, being unusually small, had to work diligently and competently, under the supervision of Miss Berleman, Miss La Vada Zutter, art adviser, and Mr. Albert J. Paulson, business manager.

We have had many fine Temulacs in the past, but we believe that this year we have published one of the best annuals, if not the best, that Calumet has ever produced. Congratulations to those who have devoted so much time and effort to this publication!

This year the Junior Hi-Y is composed mostly of athletic-minded boys, many of whom are or have been active in sports at Calumet. Their meetings are held on Tuesday of each week at the Englewood Y. M. C. A., or in the homes of the members. When the meeting is at the Y. M. C. A., the boys swim, play basketball, and indulge in other athletic activities, after which there is frequently a lecture by some prominent speaker. At the gatherings in the homes, a forty-five minute business meeting is followed by a discussion on current topics of vital interest.

Morty Cohen, a graduating senior, has capably filled the office of president this past semester, with Bill Johns as vice-president, Bernard Carsten as secretary, and Philip Du Ball as treasurer.

Officers in the fall semester were Bob Bennett, Morty Cohen, Bob Sirotek, and Kenneth Rancine president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer respectively.

Mr. Elwood Smith is the loyal sponsor of this thriving organization.

The Senior Hi-Y officers for the fall semester were: Frank Caveney, president; Gordon Murray, vice-president; Bob Anderson, secretary; and George Gaebler, treasurer. Mr. Wilbur was again the sponsor, his eleventh year in this position. Not much was done in the way of entertainment, but the members of the club helped out at the "Y" whenever help was needed.

During the spring semester, Jack Cornelius acted as president; Byron Gundlach, vice-president; Ray Lynch, secretary; and Art Malmquist, treasurer. In February several new members were initiated: Bob Malmquist, Don McClaughry, Bob Taxhet, Melvin Johnson, and Jack Thrasher.

Four parties were held during this semester. A trip through the new WGN studios, one through the Tribune Tower, and a visit to the Juvenile Court, made up the semester's program. Forums at the "Y" were held every other Tuesday, all the Senior Hi-Y members attending.

September's drive for membership exceeded all hopes and plans when the Girl Reserves totaled two hundred fifty members, composing not only one of the largest girls' clubs in the school but the largest Girl Reserve group in Chicago. The officers for the fall semester were: Virginia Gaudette, president, not only of Calumet's group but president of Inter-Club, which is composed of Girl Reserve officers from all of the south side and west side high schools of Chicago; Suzanne Schuler, vice-president; Bette McMahon, secretary; Jane Quantick, treasurer; and Virginia Thomason, publicity manager. Miss Gallagher acted as sponsor.

The Christmas party for the Burnside Settlement was its usual success. Bette Cullenbine acted as chairman and every girl took part. The children at the settlement were given stockings filled with fruits, nuts and candy, and also gifts donated by the Girl Reserve members.

An amendment passed in February limited the group to seventy-five members and stipulated that they must be either juniors or seniors. The officers of the spring semester were: Virginia Gaudette, who was re-elected president; Lorayne Pierson, vice-president; Marie Mertes, secretary; Bette McMahon, treasurer; and Margaret Clifton, publicity manager.

During the spring semester a tea was given for the mothers of the members.

The organization is divided into groups called triangles, led by triangle leaders. Triangle leaders for the spring semester were: Suzanne Schuler, Madonna Manning, Marge Agnew, Eleanor Maehl, Isabelle McIntyre, Virginia Thomason, Charlotte Gritzner, Marjorie Cook, Lois Camit, and Adele Exner.

D R A M A T I C S

From the time the final decision was made to present "Here Comes Charlie" for the benefit of the library until the curtain came down to acclaim it one of the most successful productions in Calumet's history, Mr. Ault's drama and public speaking classes took on the air of a true theatrical stock company. They managed all the affairs pertaining to production and business themselves. Accomplishments were made with great rapidity. Within a week Thomas Guider was chosen as business manager—assisted by Leo Mangan, Margaret Wahlen, Howard

"All the time we were practicing, we were on our toes," said one of the cast. "We kept looking forward to the real performance until finally it came. If you've ever been in a play, you can understand how every one of us felt. The queer feeling you get inside of you and the hot and cold spells that come over you make you realize how much depends on you, no matter how small your part.

"Once you are out on the stage, you feel the nearness of the audience. It seems to creep up and engulf you. Every time you open your mouth you pray that you will say

Schneider, and Bluma Skom—the cast was chosen, tickets were printed, and receipts began to flow in.

The weeks following were spent in serious concentration and steady practice of the play. As the date of production neared, the screams of hysterical Aunt Fanny and Vivian on being informed of Larry Elliott's adopting the Ozarkian hill-billy, Charlie Hopps, echoed throughout the halls of Calumet after the last student had left the building, for the cast and Mr. Ault devoted a good deal of overtime to rehearsing. The result was an excellent performance and an increase in the supply of magazines.

your lines right. You feel that everybody and everything is closing in and choking the breath out of you. Then you receive encouragement from the presence of the rest of the cast and you recover your poise."

"Fanny and the Servant Problem," by Jerome K. Jerome, was presented in the fall semester by selected members of the drama classes.

Under the direction of Verlyn Ault, the participants, many of whom were inexperienced, worked so diligently on the production that they well deserved the praise given by all those attending. It was a huge success financially as well as from the standpoint of dramatic interpretation.

PAINT ● AND POWDER CLUB

Agnew, Clendening, Marshall, Gaudette, Thomason, Rand, Miss Gallagher, Pickham, Lilly, Olson, McDonough, Gritzner, Brownley.

The cast which devoted so much of its time to the practicing and producing of "Fanny and the Servant Problem" was as follows: Dolores Kimmey, in the title role; Harold Gorman, capably handling the male lead; Jack Tallon, in the character of the irritating English butler; Sarah Stevens, playing the father's wife; Keith Roberts, Ruth Shapiro, Lenore Dye, Richard Barndollar, Dorothy Doyle, William Patterson, and Linnea Hendrickson completing the excellent group of young aspiring drama students.

Paint and powder is industriously applied by the Paint and Powder Club members every Monday, during ninth period. In addition they have the opportunity to put their fascinating hobby to practical use when the various dramatic and musical productions take place in the school. Their study of the application of theatrical make-up has produced most amazing results.

The club has a maximum of fifteen members and a minimum of ten. Strenuous initiations for those seeking membership in the club are administered to the aspirants with generous applications of paint, as one may see from some snapshots in the feature section of this book.

The officers for the spring semester were: Margaret Van den Bergh, president; Marge Agnew, vice-president; Lorraine Pinkham, secretary; Mary Jane McDonough, treasurer.

The members have been fortunate in having an excellent sponsor, Miss Gallagher.

At the opening of school the Calumet Reserve Officers Training Corps was placed under the able direction of a new military instructor, Corporal John Berry, succeeding Sergeant Gilman R. Carle, who was transferred to Lane Technical High School. Captain Ernest J. Hecht was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel and was placed in the command of the battalion. Under Lieutenant Colonel Hecht's command the battalion participated in several important south side parades and the R. O. T. C. rifle team was awarded first place in the south section.

The eleventh annual Military Ball was held at the Shoreland Hotel, with Emil Flindt's varsity crew supplying the music. Lieutenant-Colonel Hecht was the chairman in charge of this affair. The committee in charge of the arrangements was composed of the following officers: Major Fred Merker, Captain Jack Tallon, Captain Casey Jones, Captain Charles Bevans, Captain Oliver Dickerhoof, and First Lieutenant Thomas Weber.

At the start of the February semester the unit was made into a regiment, due to increased enrollment. Captain Adjutant Tallon was made Lieutenant Colonel First Regimental Commander.

Officers appointed as subordinates were as follows: Majors Oliver Dickerhoof and Thomas Weber; Captains C. C. Jones, William Arnold, Fred Rice, Raymond Picard, Jack Cormann, and Kenneth Olson; First Lieutenants Larry Johnson and Art Hassel; Second Lieutenants Willis Gard, Earl Fritz, Leonard Couch, Harold Donaghue, Gene Moriarty, Clarence Smith, Robert Sirotek, and William Kleinpaste.

The Non-Commissioned Officers were as follows: Regimental Sergeant Major Willis Gard, later promoted to Second Lieutenant; First Sergeant Allan Giesen; Color Sergeant Phil Ekman; Sergeants Richard Colvin, Roye Guibord, Robert Harvey, Richard Hymes, Arthur Kerchner, William Learner, John Melehes, Richard Mindes, and Philip Nolan; Corporals Frank Donaghue, Jack Farmer, Alfred Garvin, Robert Larson, Robert Legatzke, Jack Lehrman, Martin Ozinga, George Parrish, Robert Penn, Raymond Sealy, Jack Sherman, and Edward Thorne.

On Army Day the unit marched in a down town parade. They also participated in a parade dedicating a new south side school.

On May 6 the Corps held its city practice inspection under the direction of Sergeant Albert J. Cloutier. The yearly federal inspection was held on May 14, and on May 22 the unit participated in a city review in Soldiers Field. On Memorial Day another parade was held, thus winding up one of the most successful years the Calumet unit has ever had.

The Calumet High School Unit of the Civilian Air Corps has been organized as a course in aeronautics as related to military aviation.

The membership consists of students who are in their third and fourth years and have completed at least two courses in aeronautics with an "E" average.

Those enlisted are permitted to specialize in any branch of aeronautics in which they are interested. The corps must report for drill one night a week at the General Headquarters of the Civilian Air Corps, Stinson airport.

With Mr. La Pointe as its sponsor, this is the only high school unit of its kind in the United States and has gained nation-wide recognition, having received mention in the Congressional Record and before the Committee on Military Affairs.

Under the sponsorship of Arthur La Pointe, aeronautics instructor, the Kiwiettes have doubled their membership since the time of their organization in 1934, and now have an enrollment of one hundred sixty-eight junior and senior girls.

The officers for the spring semester were: Marie Dalton, president; Margaret Wahlen, vice-president; Katherine Begy, secretary; Madonna Manning, treasurer; Rosalie Epperson, social secretary; and Elsie Johnson, publicity manager. Meetings were held every Wednesday, the members wearing their sweaters and emblems on that day.

Short lectures on the various phases of aviation were delivered by Mr. La Pointe. These proved very beneficial to the members, and especially to those who intended to go farther into aviation than they could through just the high school work.

To become a member of the Kiwiettes, a girl must first be sponsored by an old member. Every freshman and sophomore looks forward to the time when she will be eligible to join this up and coming organization. A novel initiation was held in February, with the initiates wearing white helmets, goggles (painted around their eyes), a gym shoe on one foot, and a street shoe on the other. After the girls have roamed Calumet's corridors for a half day, the initiation was completed at the meeting.

The Kiwiettes captured high honors when they sponsored a roller skating party at White City Roller Rink on Valentine's day. It was, without question, one of the greatest successes financially and socially ever achieved by any organization at Calumet. More than a thousand persons attended. Those responsible for this success were: Margaret Whalen, general chairman; Grace Bugner and Alice Giermann, co-chairmen; Clarice Peters, Alice Bluhm, Anne Plukas, Dorothy Riemers, Myrtle O'Connor, Regeana De Young, Marjorie Kornfeld, Helen Lacey, Dorothy Foster, Jane Hulke, Elsie Johnson, Jeanette Adelman, Sylvia Kaplan, Rosalie Epperson, Ida Metzger, Lorraine Kane, Catherine Apato, Ruth Shanahan, Marie Dalton, and Luella Boyd.

At Christmas time the Kiwiettes had a party with a grab bag, entertainment, and refreshments. Rosalie Epperson was in charge of this party, as well as the Mother's Tea, which was given in the spring.

The Kiwiettes are fortunate in having a pilot for their instructor, and the members frequently experience the thrilling sensation of flying. Prizes at the Valentine's Party included two free airplane rides given by Mr. La Pointe.

• THE MODERN ARTS CLUB

The Modern Arts Club is rapidly growing under the helpful guidance of Miss Dorothy Gordon. Its purposes are to promote interest in art, and to encourage the originality and ability of its members.

Special attention has been given to figure sketching, holiday cards, crafts, and marionettes. The interests and talents of the club members include many branches of art, such as costume designing, poster work, interior decorating, story illustration, still life, and many other subjects.

Appreciation is stimulated by visits to current exhibits at the Art Institute. In addition several informal parties are given each semester.

Fall semester meetings were capably conducted by Ruth Yates, and spring meetings by Betty Smith, one of Calumet's outstanding students. Edward Dougherty was vice-president. Betty Lou Putnam served as secretary-treasurer.

The Home Economics Club, which has been inactive for nearly two years, was recently reorganized under the sponsorship of Miss Sybel A. Beach. At the first business meeting the officers elected were: Lucille Bowers, president; Mary Kearney, vice-president; Ruth Gambrill, secretary; and Margaret Lynch, treasurer.

The purposes of the club are to give the home economics students an opportunity to learn the newest trends in the various fields of home economics, to strengthen the bonds of friendship between the members of the group, and to be of service to other groups and individuals. The Home Economics Club has always been affiliated with the American Home Economics Association.

The many interesting activities planned for the group include teas, trips to various places of interest to the home-maker, service work for the Red Cross and other organizations, and lectures.

With Thomas Arnold serving as president and Mr. Sullivan as sponsor, the Public Speaking Club has just rounded out a successful year. Debates, discussions, trials, and declamations have all had their place in the club meetings.

At the request of members of a local improvements club a debate on the question "Resolved that Eastern Standard Time is beneficial to Chicago" was given by six members of the club. Jack Cornelius, Joseph Partlow, and Virginia Hecht were on the affirmative, with Dorothy Ratzer, Duane Finn, and Dorothy Anderson opposing them.

Mr. Sullivan, sponsor, was tried for "entrancing the girls with his dancing." Jack Cornelius and Thomas Arnold acted as prosecuting attorneys and Jack Perkins defended the accused. Duane Finn presided as judge.

The Westcott Girls Glee Club, sponsored by Miss Martha Swing, had the following officers last semester: Ruth Hurt, president; Ethel Johnson, vice-president; Evelyn Johnson, treasurer; and Betty Jane Blocki, secretary. The club pins are shaped like a lyre, with the letter "C" in the center.

An unusual opportunity was offered to the girls this semester. Their application to enter the All-Chicago Glee Club Festival was accepted and a trio from the club represented them at Orchestra Hall on May 27. Two numbers, "Lift Thine Eyes", by Logan, and "Goodnight", by Deems Taylor, were sung on that occasion.

A dance and several teas were given by the club in the course of the semester.

Larson, Peacock, Peters.

The Mixed Chorus is composed of the fifty members of the Girls Glee Club and twenty-five boys who are not organized into a club but who meet with the girls twice a week to sing four-part choruses.

The primary purpose of this organization is to give students an opportunity to enjoy the study of good choral music and to secure training in reading fairly difficult music and bringing it to a state of perfection. The secondary purpose is to serve the school by presenting programs at P. T. A. meetings, commencement exercises, and school assemblies. Then there is the excitement of entering the annual contest, the finals of which are held at Orchestra Hall.

The Hallowe'en and Christmas parties and the annual dinner, this year held at International House, were gay social events.

On April 22 and 23 the Mixed Chorus produced the operetta "South in Sonora," in which seventy-five singers participated, besides the orchestra and dancers. The principal parts in this Mexican operetta were taken by Robert Geerdes, John Wayland, Marian Hanson, Adelaide Hemenway, Lorraine Hannion, Dave Hoare, John Dickerhoof, Keith Roberts, Jessie MacFarlane, Barbara Roney, Winifred Hutchins, and Ray Lane.

The officers of the spring semester of the Girls Glee Club were Jessie MacFarlane, president; Marian Johnson, vice-president, and Adelaide Hemenway, secretary-treasurer.

The German Club, sponsored this year by Miss Ruth Schmidt, is composed of students of German who are interested in making use of the German learned in class. With this aim in mind, German songs are sung, German games played, and German slides and movies shown.

Last semester, at the Christmas party, many members lent their talents to entertaining the entire club. Several students put on a German play, which proved such a success that it was later given at a P. T. A. meeting.

The officers for the fall semester were: Alice James, president; Margaret Van den Bergh, vice-president; Joseph Stampf, secretary; and Willard Lassers, treasurer.

The officers for the spring semester were: Grace Suhr, president; Jean Guillaudeu, vice-president; Adele Exmer, secretary; and Ada Dorl, treasurer.

"Wo sind die Maedchen?"

"No need to be so upset, Mr. Photographer. Sie sind doch alle hier. German is a masculine subject, sir."

For those of us who are graduating it is our "Lebewohl" to dear old Cal and the German classes. For those of us who are continuing, choose your officers right now for next semester's German Club. Yes, any one of us. In our German 4 classes we are being trained little by little in parliamentary procedure—German, of course.

On Friday the classes meet in 212, where for thirty minutes glorious and melodious German music swells the room. This is the first time German 4 classes have had their picture in the Temulac. It will be a reminder to us of the happy hours we spent in such delight, reading and speaking and singing German.

THIRD ROW: Gruber, Newquist, Stevenson, W. Bowers, Delaney, Wymer, V. Harnew, Clasby, Peterson, Patterson, Lane, C. Harnew, Cummings, Johnsen, Putnam, Luchsinger, McKelvey, Israelstam, Chaffee. SECOND ROW: J. Sullivan, Triezenberg, Hemenway, Nelson, Smith, Eckwald, Lacey, Mrs. Spencer, Miss Wolf, Workman, Williams, Eckstrom, McIntyre, Gambrill, Breen, Olson. FRONT ROW: Lundberg, Foy, Ciha, Goldstein, Wyma, Brownley, Logue, Nachel, Niedringhaus, Recchia, Drake, Giacomelli, Lundberg, N. Nelson.

The Spanish Club is made up of the students in Spanish 5, 6, 7 and 8. Members of the club participated in two events organized by the Sociedad Espanola of Chicago—a Spanish talking picture, and a program to commemorate the anniversary of the founding of the Spanish Republic. Other activities of the semester consisted of singing Spanish songs and making preparations for a Spanish Club party in May.

The program committee consisting of Helen Lacey, Jane Jordan, and Adelaide Hemenway arranged an attractive program for this party. The old comedy, "'Las Aceitunas" was given both in Spanish and in English. The Spanish roles were taken by Amy Brownley, Robert Delaney, Lorraine Ciha, and William Patterson. The English roles were taken by Helen Giacomelli, Walter Thimm, Margaret Foy, and Joseph Sullivan.

The fluent and expressive babble of French that can be heard twice a month in Miss Drolsom's class might easily lead a visitor to believe he is in a Parisian theater. Every other Friday is "Club Day," and the French students of the seventh and eighth semesters have a merry time with their dramatic productions, games, and songs—all in French, of course.

Le Cercle Francais has flourished under the competent leadership of Bob Cruise, president, and Caroline Campbell, vice-president. Shirley Kelly and Mary Coffey have acted as secretary and treasurer, respectively.

Late in May, the mothers of the club members were entertained at a tea, at which the clever presentation of that hilarious comedy, "Les Deux Sourds," provoked much laughter. The players were Rita Corbett, Shirley Summers, Winnifred Donahue, and Bob Cruise.

La Petite Alliance is composed of students in their sixth semester of French. The officers were: Aurora Hagen, president; Jean Britton, vice-president; Mary Jane McDonough, secretary; and Philip Du Ball, treasurer.

The members meet each Monday during class time. Various reports on interesting topics concerning France are given. These include book reports, letters received from French friends, illustrations of famous French centers of interest, and talks on French artists, musicians, and historic characters.

Every two weeks movies or slides of France are shown through the cooperation of Miss Berleman, the sponsor of La Petite Alliance.

Well-known French songs, such as La Marseillaise, L'Alouette, and Le Chevalier du Guet ring through the halls when the members feel light-hearted.

LES ● BONS AMIS FRANÇAIS

Les Bons Amis Francais is a club which was formed in the fall semester by the French 4 class. The officers for the fall semester were: Violet Danielson, president; Elaine Roy, secretary; Philip Du Ball, vice-president; Jack Campiche, treasurer. In the spring semester the officers were: Jack Campiche, president; Agle Argiris, vice-president; June Alfers, secretary; Ruth Bergstrom, treasurer.

Many of the members correspond regularly with French boys and girls.

Ruth Bergstrom told her French correspondent about Calumet's Clean-up campaign. Her correspondent evidently did not quite understand, for she replied (in French): "In France the students do not clean the schools. We have janitresses who do that."

Les Cadets Francais was organized under the supervision of Misses Trahey and Drolsom, for the purpose of familiarizing the class with the customs of France, both in the cities and in the country, as well as with the language as spoken by the French.

French movies were shown to give the students a better visual understanding of Paris and the life in various parts of France. Several one-act plays were enacted by the students, who, after only a few weeks of practice, interpreted them very well. French newspapers, telegrams, and songs helped to hold the interest of the students in the club. "Les Trois Ours", "Le Chat et le Renard", et "La Cabane au Toit de Fromage", were only a few of the stories in our French reader that we enjoyed immensely.

Nous nous sommes bien amuses!

"Le Petit Cercle Francais" is the name of Miss Cornelia Drolsom's second period French club, composed of French 4 students. The purpose of this organization is to become better acquainted with French manners and customs through social meetings.

The minutes of each meeting are in French, as are the games, songs, conversation, and delightful plays that follow. Thus an increased interest in the French class itself is developed, and the study of the language becomes much simpler as well as more entertaining.

The officers for the spring semester were:
Kenneth Holmgren, president.
Lorraine Geyer, vice-president.
Leana Fitzpatrick, secretary.
Edward Atherton, treasurer.
Robert Hopkins, program chairman.

BACK ROW: Abrams, Georgan, Abern, Keefe, Scalise, Zorn, Holmgren, Shaw, Helbig, Erickson. That Latin is definitely not a dead language may be proved beyond a doubt by listening to a Virgil class recitation.

Reading Vergil fascinates the group. Interesting discussions arising from the vivid descriptions or the wise philosophy of the master poet add a personal touch to the class. Judging from the enrollment one may say that more students are indulging in the enriching study of ancient poetry.

Our Cicero class is a small, friendly group, most of whom have been together for four semesters. In our study of Cicero, although we work hard at the syntax, we are also aware of the brilliance of Cicero's style and his clear thinking. Someone has called him "the first modern man." The politics and social problems of Rome of twenty centuries ago strangely resemble our own. We draw many a parallel.

The membership of the Calumet Assistant Librarians Club has increased to fifty-one members as the result of the increase of the staff from three student assistants to six each period.

In the fall semester Marjorie Lee Cook pounded the president's gavel, and was ably assisted by Caroline Campbell, vice-president, and Rita Corbett, secretary-treasurer.

During Miss Cook's administration, the Calumet Assistant Librarians gave their club its official name and wore emblems and sweaters for the first time. The C. A. L. club gave a tea, a ping-pong party, a Christmas party, and last, but not least, a play.

The officers for the spring semester were: Lois Camit, president; Loretta Rowland, vice-president; Marion Brett, secretary, and Anne Swanson, treasurer.

The recently reorganized Chemistry Club has a membership of approximately seventy-five chemistry students. Since the departure of Miss Parmelee, Mr. Schuessler has become the sponsor. A promising young chemist, Andrew Milwid, is president of the club, while Marvin Brooks serves as vice-president. Harold Goodman handles the finances of the organization and the office of secretary is filled by Helen Kuehne.

At the meetings, which are held on alternate Thursdays, lectures are given by Mr. Schuessler and other chemistry instructors. These lectures aid the members of the club in understanding the use of chemistry in modern business and prove to be extremely interesting to everyone.

The Botany Club is one of the large organizations whose purpose is to give service to the school. The club sponsored the annual Rose Sale again this year, to raise funds to beautify the school grounds.

Students who are interested may participate in the many field trips to the Flower Show, Garfield Park, the Field Museum, the Dunes, and the forest preserves. Some of the trips are taken individually, but the group tours are more popular.

The officers were: Bob King, president; Ruth Wimmer, vice-president; Beth Dring, secretary; and Henry Hildebrandt, treasurer. Mr. Bartky is the honorary president and Miss Fremont, the sponsor.

BACK ROW: Hecht, Berndt, Hawkinson, Coughlin, Blakeway, Webb, Novak, Breen, Valiquet, Weber, Schattschneider, Cochonour, Brennan, Saurbier, Koppel, Alexander, Bernbach. The band is one of the outstanding organizations at Calumet. It entertains at all school assemblies and takes part in all the major parades held in Southtown and several in the Loop.

Each year the band participates in the spring and fall concerts held in the Calumet auditorium. These concerts not only provide entertainment for the audience but also make it possible for the band to purchase new instruments from time to time.

Band officers this year were Major Ronald Lane, Major Gordon Murray, Captain Keith Roberts, and Lieutenants Stuart Coulson, Erwin Giessen, Ralph Thurn, Frank Reker, Phillip Scheid, and Robert McCullough.

Members of the band are also active in solo contests. Last year in the city contest Ronald Lane and Keith Roberts won second place on snare drum and baritone saxophone respectively. They then went to the national contest held in Madison. Lane won second division and Roberts won third division. This year, Roberts won first place in the city and Lane won third.

Interest in standard music, both vocal and instrumental, has increased so rapidly in the last decade that it has now become a very important subject in the public schools of America.

In the orchestral field the largest schools have built up orchestras of symphonic proportions and Calumet, in its few years' existence as a modernly equipped high school, has produced an orchestra which has taken its place along with four other schools as one of the largest in the Chicago schools. The Calumet orchestra consists of eighty players, the instrumentation being as follows: three flutes, two oboes, four clarinets, two bassoons, four horns, four trumpets, three trombones, one tuba, three tympani and drums, twenty-six violins, seven violas, eleven cellos, and eight basses.

Calumet entered the city contest May 12 in group one, playing the required number, "Overture to Prometheus" by Beethoven, and an optional number, "Prelude to Lohengrin" by Wagner. Preparation for this work is begun with the beginning and junior classes and with few exceptions requires four semesters of technical training.

Funds necessary for the purchase of music and instruments and for repairs are raised by giving concerts and other entertainments under the auspices of the parents' organization, known as the Calumet Band-Orchestra Sponsors. The splendid service this group has given and the support and co-operation of the principal are mainly responsible for the success of this department.

Although hopes for the South Section title were dimmed by defeats in the first two games, Calumet's battling footballers finished the year in great style by triumphing over three league opponents, losing to another, and tying Culver Military Academy.

Coach Edwin A. Dygert, starting his eighth year as grid master at Calumet, was faced with the difficult problem of building a team around just three returning veterans, Elmer Gallovitch, Bert Ovesen, and Jim McDonald. But build that team he did—a team possessing all the customary Calumet fighting spirit and will-to-win. As the famous "Eddie" declared on the auditorium stage, it was an eleven of which the school could be proud.

Calumet triumphed over Fenger, Hirsch and Harper. Moreover, in the three games which were lost, the scores indicate that her opponents had no easy task. Morgan Park defeated our team 10 to 0; Bowen and Parker each won by the score of 13 to 0.

Three victories, three losses, and a tie—not a championship record, to be true. Yet, unless all indications go awry, those seven tilts provided many of the team members with the experience necessary for Calumet to win the 1936 sectional crown.

The students of Calumet will not soon forget the gallant fighting Spartans of 1935.

HEAVYWEIGHT BASKETBALL

Bad luck was the predominating factor that kept the Spartan varsity cagers from finishing on top in the south-side scramble this year.

After beating Parker 26-22 in their initial game, the Boyleites met the much-feared Bowen team that was eventually to cop the sectional crown. Howie Schneider, Bob Norrell, Joe Stampf, Charlie Buchholz, and Art Katzmann lined up on the maroon and blue side for this never-to-be-forgotten game.

With Calumet trailing by two points and only a few seconds to go, Buchholz, flashy guard, was fouled. The crowd was first hushed and expectant, then wild with joy as "Buck" stepped up to the free throw lane and dropped both attempts through the hoop.

A few moments later the timekeeper's gun ended the fourth quarter. The game was recorded as a tie, after even a hectic overtime period failed to break the deadlock.

Hirsch, sectional darkhorses, who almost kept Calumet from a title last year, was the next opponent and for three quarters they battled the Spartans to a tie. An inspired fourth quarter rally broke the morale of the Chathamites and Calumet won 33-26.

On January 31 Joe Stampf, lanky center, grabbed the limelight, when he rolled up eighteen markers in only two quarters of play against the Morgan Parkers. Coach Boyle sent in reserves, after his first string protegees had annexed a 19-2 lead in the opening stanza. The final score was 44-23.

But there was not much rejoicing in the Spartan camp that night for Captain Buchholz, Hammant, and Limber graduated the next day, putting a big dent in the quintet's smooth offense. Art Katzmann, steady guard, took over the leadership of the five and his coolness under fire won more than one game.

The toughest blow was yet to come. In the last canto of the Englewood contest Joe Stampf registered a free throw, to give Boyle's hopefuls a 35-34 advantage. Lady Luck was wearing a Purple uniform that night, however, for with less than ten seconds to go, Talan, Englewood forward, sped down the floor and swept the net with two points and a Purple victory.

A week later Howie Schneider and Joe Stampf divided scoring honors with 13 points apiece, when the Spartans outfeinted, outshot, and outdribbled the Harperites, 38-11.

Cramped in Hyde Park's small gym, Calumet barely eked out a 20-18 victory over the Hyde Parkers. Schneider and Stampf accounted for all but five of the Spartan points. Despite the victories over Harper and Hyde Park, the damage was done, for Bowen, with only their tie with Calumet against them, and Englewood, who had lost only one game to the Boilermakers, came through without additional losses; the Spartans' loss and tie eliminated them from the playoffs.

Sure of gaining only a third place berth, the Boyleites played against the Fenger five and won 26-22.

Room 314A, upperclass basketball winners, became the Calumet inter-room basketball champs on April 2, when they outreached the game but tiny "B" session quintet, 28-14, in a curtain raiser to the faculty game. George Tebbens, Pat McGreal, Harrison Baker, Jack Irwin, Richard Saurbier, Edward Bradtke, and Ray Malmquist composed the championship aggregation.

Although the height of their opponents proved to be too much of an advantage, room 303B, underclass champs, fought every inch of the way. Freshmen Glickauf, Johnson, Small, Lee, Biallis, and Milkins, "B" champs, displayed a surprising defense and loom as strong contenders for the '37 crown.

Room 212B had previously vanquished 303B, 21 to 12, in the "B" session finals, but the crown was awarded to the losers on a forfeit, when an ineligible man was discovered in the 212B lineup.

George Johnson, fiery little 108-pound captain of 212B, was permitted to play with 303B in the championship clash with room 314A.

Forty-six rooms were entered in the session baskethon. Howie Schneider, Art Katzmann, and Bob Holloway were officials for the contests.

LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL

With the most inexperienced quintet ever to don the maroon and blue, Coach George Boyle this year accomplished the seemingly impossible, when the Calumet Midget cagers finished in a tie for third place. They won five of their eight contests.

Calumet wrote a disastrous beginning to the season by losing to their traditional enemy, Parker, 14-9. The defeat came only after the Spartans failed to score a single point in the second half, an unprecedented occurrence in the annals of Spartan basketball.

The juniors jumped back into the section tussle a week later, however, by trouncing Bowen, 33 to 23. Ray Hamilton, fiery forward, represented the winning margin with ten markers. Fried and Kublunas duplicated Hamilton's feat in the Fenger fray, and the local lads won 38-25. Only two points separated Cal from the Titans at the halfway mark, but the Spartans collected a total of 24 points in the second half.

Although Calumet was losing 25-12 at the end of the first two stanzas against Hirsch, the boys made a gallant stand in the second half and kept pace point for point with the league leaders. The Chathamites won 47-34, however, although Fried and Kublunas donated twenty tallies.

Allowing the Empehi to score only 14 points in the first half, the Midgetmen had no trouble in vanquishing Morgan Park, 27-14. All of the Calumet reserves saw action in this one-sided battle. At Englewood the Spartans slipped and skidded to a 30 to 21 defeat, when they faced the Purple warriors on a waxed floor. The one bright feature of the contest was that Fried, although suffering from a cold, rang up his fourth straight ten points.

Cal's next opponents were the Harperites. At the end of the half Calumet had only a 12-10 lead; then in the third canto Fried and Kirchnopf started a smooth passing attack, and the final score was 29-19 in favor of Calumet.

The Midgetmen added a grand finale to their season's efforts by breaking their scoring record with a crashing 39-24 victory over Hyde Park, their last foe. Fried and Kirchnopf divided scoring honors, with nine apiece.

Calumet's finish in third place in the section was spectacular when it is considered that Coach Boyle had only fresh material with which to work. Not one man on the team had returned from the last season, and most of the players were sophomores and juniors. The lightweights faced teams that had three or four lettermen back from '35.

Although Carl Fried, ace pivotman and captain, will probably appear in the varsity lineup next winter, the juniors already seem assured of a winning team. Johnnie Kublunas, high-scoring forward, is the only other regular not returning.

Convincing a gathering of nine hundred spectators that the students are superior to the teachers in at least one subject, the varsity baskeball team pinned back the ears of the faculty cagemen on April 2.

Sullivan, chemistry instructor, George Boyle, cage coach, John Bartky, principal, Eddie Dygert, football mentor, and Elmer Casey, commercial law teacher, took the floor for the first whistle. Opposing them were Schneider, Sims, Stampf, Norrell, and Katzmann of the varsity.

After jumping into a decisive lead in the opening minutes, the varsity regulars withdrew from the scrimmage to allow the subs to display their wares. But with George Boyle, faculteer, paving the way with point after point, the lead slowly dwindled away. The varsity led only 16-13 at the half.

Scurrying back into the game, the regulars again took the offensive, despite the efforts of cagers Sansone, Hunter, Peterson, O'Brien, and Busch, who saw action at one time or another during the hectic third and fourth frames.

When the smoke of the battle cleared, George Boyle had tallied sixteen markers to corral scoring honors, while Howie Schneider, Spartan cager, sank a total of 12 points. And the final count? Varsity, 34; Faculty, 24.

LIGHTWEIGHTS

A thrilling moment in the lightweight game with Hyde Park. Ray Hamilton, Cal forward, is sinking a short toss.

One week to go before the seasonal opener with Parker, traditional enemy, and only Jim McDonald and Floyd Christiansen, regulars from last year, sure of positions! That's the predicament that faced George Boyle, baseball coach, this year as a result of the cold weather which prevented batting practice until only a week before the initial game of the year.

How Coach Boyle in that short time assembled a nine that proved to be one of the best that the Spartan fans ever rooted for is history.

Pitching was the most pressing of the many worries that assailed the handsome mentor. But Bob Bennett, Kenny Dunkle, gridmen, and Joe Stampf, cager, turned their aspirations to the mound and came through remarkably well for the maroon and blue.

With Christiansen on the hot corner and McDonald playing first, John Looby, fastest diamondeer on the squad, quickly cinched the shortstop berth. Bill Buglio and Fred Blackmore waged a tight battle over second base. Buglio's more powerful hitting finally swung the balance in his favor, although Blackmore proved to be an A-1 utlity man throughout the year.

Catcher Bob Holloway's unexpected slugging power influenced Boyle into moving him up fifth in the batting order. Throughout the season, however, the outfield was the weak link of the aggregation.

John Kenney, John McKillop, Bill Zima, Chuck Koselke, George Tebbens, Dick Neakrase, Phil DuBall, and Walter Tertinger were continually switched about in the garden areas in an attempt to secure a hard-hitting outfield.

Out of the first four sectional tilts Calumet won three, and for a time seemed to be headed for the sectional championship. After losing to Parker 7-6, Calumet won an eight-inning thriller from Harper 7-3, and then defeated Morgan Park 3-2, and Fenger 10-5.

A three-game losing streak followed these three victories. Hirsch opened the bad luck era with a 1-0 victory over Calumet. The Bowen game turned into a royal 15-13 slugfest, with even the pitchers fattening their batting averages. The league-leading Parkerites next chalked up Calumet in the lost column, when a five-run splurge enabled them to emerge victorious 6-2.

Bob Bennett, stellar Spartan twirler, ranked himself with the "Immortals" on May 18, when he turned in a no-run, no-hit performance against Fenger. It was the tightest pitching duel ever fought in the City League. Payne, Titan slow ball artist, allowed only one hit. Looby's single in the seventh gave Calumet a 1-0 win.

In their second Harper game Calumet won 1-0, Bennett allowing only three hits. But in the second Morgan Park tilt, Calumet lost 2-0. Looby and Tebbens homered to defeat Hirsch 12-5, on May 20.

Spartan fans were treated to many thrills during the season play. Probably the most breath-taking of these came with two out in the eighth inning of the Morgan Park game on April 20. With the score 2-2 Captain Jim McDonald socked a long triple and Looby, who was on the pathways, counted with the all-important third run, ending the game.

During the 1936 season, the Spartan mermen showed great progress. The return of six regulars, Postlethwaite, Nielsen, Sexton, Wesensten, Simmons, and Nieuburt, helped to make Calumet's swimmers a troublesome crew for other schools. Coach A. J. Paulson displayed his ability when, with only two days' practice a week, the boys turned out a fighting, aggressive team.

In the opening meet the Spartans turned back Harper 54 to 10 in the senior division, and 36 to 18 in the junior division. In the return meet, Calumet won from Harper 39 to 16 in the senior meet, while the juniors nosed out their opponents 21 to 20.

With two victories won, the Spartans met the strong Leo team with high hopes. They were handed their first defeat in both divisions; the seniors lost 32 to 23, and the juniors, 46 to 9. The high point men were Postlethwaite, 200-yard swimmer, and Wesensten, ace diver. The senior six-man relay was an important means of getting points, for this team was not defeated the whole season.

Members of the senior team who received letters were: Postlethwaite, captain; Wesensten, McCready and Simmons.

In the interclass swimming meet the senior entry, under the captainship of Bob Simmons, won the interclass champion shields.

Calumet's wrestling team opened the season on January 8, by meeting Proviso High School and winning a close victory. Calumet is the only school in Chicago that was able to run up a score against Proviso.

Meeting Lindblom and Tilden twice, Cal's wrestlers received a win and a defeat at the hands of both. Tilden went on and took the city title, while Lindblom took third place. During the season the Spartan scrappers won six team victories and lost eight.

In the city meet held at the University of Chicago, Lambros and Tarson each drew a bye but were defeated by men who later placed in the meet. Holtsberg, Madigan, and Hoare won their first matches, but lost the second time in over-time bouts. Tom Madigan's opponent took the city title.

The B. A. A. of Westcott is an organization which was started this year for boys who are interested in athletics. It has sponsored session room baseball, basketball and volley ball tournaments. The winning teams were presented banners of maroon and blue for their session rooms.

The governing body of this organization is made up of the representatives from the session rooms and a council of five boys, one from each gym class. These boys act as referees for the games. The officers of the B. A. A. this semester were Gus Ziagos, president; Kenneth Troendlein, vice-president; and George Turner, secretary-treasurer. The members of the council were Bob Milnes, Nick Fusco, Hillis Holcomb, Lloyd Bigelow, and Don Smith. Mr. Busch is faculty adviser.

The officers of the G. A. A. last fall were Eileen Kenny, president; Louise Woods, vice-president; Bette McMahon, secretary; Rita Corbett, treasurer. In the spring Diana Smead was chosen president; Madonna Manning, vice-president; Dorothy Doyle, secretary; and Alice Gierman, treasurer.

The girls serving on the spring Board of Sports are: Louise Woods, chairman of the hiking committee; Helen Lacey, Lucille Landvogt, Sarah Nadler, and Lorraine Helder, hiking assistants; June Anderson, volley ball chairman; Eileen Kenny, basketball; Margaret Wahlen, bowling; Elsie Johnson, tennis; Helen Kuehne, swimming; Catherine Fraser, baseball; Betty Pollard and Audrey Schmitz, ping pong; Doris Kokesch, Virginia Metz, dancing; Alois Claxton, bicycling; Rita Corbett, captain ball; Ruth Gambrill, roller skating.

● ALPHA CHAPTER

During the fall semester, Alpha Chapter was led by Diana Smead, the capable president. Her faithful helper, Madonna Manning, was vice-president, and Marian Hanson recorded the minutes. Financial affairs were taken care of by Louise Woods.

This year Alpha Chapter adopted the wearing of blue sweaters with a maroon "A." An initiation party was given, as well as a party for the senior members and one for the junior members.

In the spring semester, the club was headed by Louise Woods, with Dorothy Hoger, an able assistant, as vice-president. Minutes of the meetings were recorded by Lorraine Walters. Finances were handled by the co-treasurers, Doris Kokesch and Frances Legatzke.

BACK ROW: Kunka, Twerenbold, Larson, Corbett, Durkin, Hughes, Bluhm, Hauser, Brett, Limber, E. In the G. A. A. at Westcott one hundred seventy-four girls were enrolled. The members played basketball and volley ball on Thursday and Friday mornings before school. The organization sponsored several hikes and a picnic.

Some of the 2A girls have earned their thousand points for their school letters during their four semesters. The freshmen and 2B's have been working hard for points so that they too may receive their letters in 2A.

The business of the organization is carried on by session room representatives and the games are managed by a board of sports. The girls on the board this semester were: Ruth Johnson, Patsy Arvan, Vera Lischer, Marion Alberts, Ellen Cheevers, and Betty Foster.

The president of the G. A. A. was Viola Norstrom. Mary Brown was vice-president; Edna McMahon, secretary; and Marie Dillon, treasurer.

The Beta Chapter of the G. A. A. is composed of the "B" session girls who are delegates to the G. A. A. They meet in the girls' club room every Friday during first period. The officers during the past year were: Ada Dorl, president; Kathleen O'Brien, vice-president; and June Schwieger, secretary.

The members of Beta Chapter had a roller skate party to the forest preserves, where they had games and a weinie roast. They also had their own roller skate chairman, Lorraine Curtin, and their own hike and bike assistants.

Every Thursday after ninth period Beta Chapter members go roller skating, starting out from 82nd and May streets. On Saturday afternoons at two o'clock the girls interested in bicycling meet at the same place and go riding.

BETA ● CHAPTER

The G. A. A. has such a variety of projects that we are always in the process of doing something else. At the beginning of the semester we organized our Alpha and Beta chapters and held our membership drive. After the drive we elected officers for the following semester.

Each semester the G. A. A. adds to its game equipment, things that cannot be secured from the gym supplies. Last fall one set of duck pins, four new ping pong paddles, and a dozen ping pong balls were added. The spring Board of Sports had fudge donated to sell at all socials. This money was spent for six pairs of roller skates and a badminton set.

Each semester a party is held in the gym. The tickets are taken up at the door and later a door prize ticket is drawn. Refreshments are served and there is social dancing and a floor show. The picture on this page was taken at the G. A. A. Christmas party.

At this party Doris Kokesch and Pearl Slattery gave an acrobatic waltz, Aurora Hagen gave a tap dance, Minnie McAllister, played a saxophone solo, and the Floradora sextette, taught by Doris Kokesch, gave a tap number. The girls were Doris Kokesch, Virginia Metz, Caroline Campbell, Rita Corbett, Dorothy Anderson, and Geraldine Geller. Grace Lotesto played the piano accordion.

The June party was entertained by little Phyllis Metz, daughter of our shop teacher, Mr. Metz; Florence Valiquet, toe tapper; the tango dancers, Agle Argiris and Ray Lane; and the military tappers, Doris Kokesch, Virginia Metz, Harriet Koch, LaVerne Thormeyer, LaVerne White, and Valerie Bourret.

The music at both parties was furnished by Bob Keith's orchestra and social dancing completed the program.

THE G. A. A. CHRISTMAS PARTY

Toward the end of the spring semester there was a splash party for G. A. A. members.

The G. A. A. completed its 1935 donation to the Genevieve Melody Scholarship Fund and has its name on the memorial tablet in the auditorium.

The G. A. A. sponsors many outdoor activities which enable the girls not only to earn the 1,000 points needed to earn a "C", but also to form good health and recreation habits.

We hope in time to persuade all the girls at Calumet to join the only all-girl organization for the whole school.

● TENNIS SQUAD

Helen Kuehne, Elsie Johnson, Madonna Manning, Alice Giermann, Diana Smead, Dolores Keller.

Under the sponsorship of the G. A. A., a tennis tournament was held in the spring, with about thirty girls participating. All the games were played at Foster Park, 83rd and Loomis Boulevard. If a girl did not have a racquet or balls, she was able to borrow them from the G. A. A.

It was not an elimination tournament and each contestant played at least ten games. All the players received G. A. A. points for playing. In order to enter the tournament the participant had to show a G. A. A. membership card.

The girls were given ample time to play their matches. The scores were posted in the gymnasium. Elsie Johnson was in charge of the tournament.

In the spring all the girls' gymnasium classes are taught volley ball. The classes are divided into teams, and class tournaments are held. Besides class play, special games classes also play volley ball. The winning team is given a spread and program by all the losing teams. June Anderson is chairman of volley ball and made the chart on the bulletin board for the tournament recording.

Every day some new skill is taught in squads for better volley ball playing. Any team securing perfect rating in these skills is given credit for winning a game.

In this manner we hape to get our volley ball teams out of the club class and into the "pros."

This is not a picture of Atlantic City Bathing Beauties, but of nine enthusiastic swimmers of Calumet. Jackie Nicholson and Ethel Hughes show promise of being future Olympic stars.

Ada Helen Lane and Shirley Miller are letter girls and all around athletes. Evelyn Krastin is an outstanding baseball player.

Marion Rex is an asset to any team, and is especiallly good at basketball. Ethel Forbes is the proud possessor of a letter and four chevrons, the second girl in the annals of Calumet to receive that honor. A swimmer, a diver, and a jolly good fellow, that's Helen Kuehne. Eileen Kenny is both a leader and a swimmer, for she was elected president of the G. A. A. by popular vote.

Each spring the girls of the Chicago public high schools hold proficiency tests, with different events each year. The tests are made in squads and are indicative of the girls' individual skill and progress. These events test co-ordination, aim, accuracy, and speed.

Some of the outstanding performers are: Dorothy Huber and Geraldine Pollasch on jump ropes; Gloria Scarnavack, Evelyn Abrams, Mildred Harper, Mildred Schmitt and Valarie Clendenning in baseball pitching; Dorothy Huber, Evelyn Gillard, Grace Suhr, Jean Doyle, Selma Woodruff and Shirley Morris in dash and throw; Frances Magner, Selma Woodruff, Betty Pollard, Audrey Schmitz, Shirley Morris, Margaret Eckwald and Dorothy williams in volley ball serve.

The Letter Girls may well be called the outstanding girl athletes of Calumet. To be a Letter Girl a girl must succeed in acquiring 1,000 points, which she gets for active participation in various sports, for attention to personal hygiene, and for scholarship.

After receiving her letter a girl may earn a chevron every semester until she graduates. For every chevron, 350 additional points are required, and no points are awarded for the same things for which she received credit toward her letter.

The officers of the fall semester were: president, Ethel Forbes; vice-president, Ada Helen Lane; secretary, Eileen Kenny; treasurer, Dorothy Ann Huber. Those holding office this spring were: Eileen Kenny, Louise Woods, Frances Legatzke, and Edith Kowech, president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

The Bowling Club of previous semesters proved so popular that the G. A. A. bought one new set of duck pins, so that five alleys could operate at once. The registration was over 100, so with one alley reserved for advanced bowlers, there were still not enough alleys.

After several lessons on form and after bowling only at the head pin, the girls advanced to three pins, then six, and finally ten. One whole lesson was given to learning to score. A few of our girls have gone to neighborhood alleys and made very good records.

The officers were: Lillian Field, president; Gloria Scarnavack, secretary; and Maxine Monahan, treasurer.

Lillian Field's father donated 100 little wooden pins for the club emblems and several hundred guide books and score cards for bowling.

This YEAR BOOK Tells Our Story, Too

- Every Year Book is a record of accomplishment and ambitions achieved. We like to think it tells our story of an ambition achieved, too — for truly we are proud of this annual. It tells, we believe, far better than words, the fine work we are doing. And 51 years of steady growth and progress are evidence that we are pleasing more printing buyers every year. No matter what your printing problem may be — letterhead, folder or booklet — let us help you.
